MME. YALE'S ALMOND BLOSSOM COMPLEXION CREAM

GREATEST TOILET LUXURY MADE

CLEANSES, SOFTENS, PURI-FIES, WHITENS AND BEAU-TIFIES THE SKIN. SOAP AND WATER ONLY CLEANSE SUPERFICIALLY.

Mme. Yale says: A little Almond Blossom Complexion Cream should be applied every time the face and hands are washed. It removes the dust, soct, grime, smut and smudge from the intertices of the skin and makes the surface smooth as velvet.

A daily necessity at home and abroad; a treasure when traveling by land and water. Protects the skin from cutting winds, burning rays of the sun and every injurious effect of the elements. Prevents and cures abnormal redness of the nose or any part of the face, also chapping, chafing, cold sores, fever blisters and all irritation of the skin. It is the greatest known specific for burns, takes the fire out quicker than anything else, sootnes, heals and prevents scars and suppuration. Indispensable for use of infants and every member of the household. An exquisite nat-ural beautifier. A grateful ap-plication after shaving. Excellent for massage purposes. Mme. PROFICIENCY IN MARKSMAN-SHIP IN ARMY IS SOUGHT

Washington, April 17 -- Proficiency in marksmanship on the part of the enlisted men of the army is sought by the military authorities, and to this end, after a thorough test made by the board of ordinance and fortification of the war department, it has been decided to use the sub-target gun ma-chine and recording rifle rod outfits in the training of soldiers in the use of small arms. Major General J.Franklin Bell, chief of staff, has issued a circular to the service stating that the ordinance de-partment will issue on requisition one sub-target gun machine to each squadron of cavalry and battalion of infantry, and not to exceed ten recording rifle rod outfits for small arms sight ing and aiming instructions to each troop of cavalry and to each company of infantry, coast artillery, engineers and signal corps. About fifty thousand dollars has been spent by the department for this apparatus. With the sub-target rifle machine, soldiers may practice shoot ing indoors without a rifle range and without the use of shells. The ma-chine may be described as a rifle with a captive bullet, the course of which, from rifle to target, is visible. The objective target is located sixty feet from the marksman. The gun holder is so constructed that it is impos sible to secure a point of rest with which to steady the gun in aiming. The rifle is held, aimed and discharged in the ordinary way.

No ammunition is used, and all dan ger from accident is eliminated. A needle pierces a small sub-target in the exact spot aimed at on the objective target.

Character of the Bowery Killed and Slayer Escapes

New York, April 17 .- On the theory that the arrest of Benny Adelson, in California, yesterday, may have something to do with the crime, the police today are investigating the shooting of Billy O'Brien, a well-known East Side character, in front of Steve Brodie's saloon on the Bowery, early today. O'Brien was shot through the heart and died instantly. The man who fired the fatal shot escaped. It was at first believed the murder was the result of a quarrel, but when it was learned that O'Brien was known to be a witness in the shooting of Joe Rellley in Pell street in 1905, in connection by a snake. His injuries failed to heal with which Adelson is reported to by scientists treatment.

have been arrested yesterday in Pasa-dena, the authorities turned their attention to this phase of the case. The report became known along the Bowery, and O'Brien's probable appearance as a witness against Adelson was freely talked about in the resorts O'Brien had had a dispute with a man and a woman in one of the resorts, and is said to have struck the woman. When he left the place, some time afterward, he was shot down, his as-sailant escaping through an alley.

Four men were detained by the po-lice today in connection with the killing of O'Brien. Three of them were New Yorkers, and the fourth gave his name as Patrick Donovan, of Whitman, Mass. Donovan told the police that he was nearby when the shooting occurred, and saw the murderer run away,

Donovan was later held with Joseph Juchnowreky, one of the men arrested, in $1,000 bail to await the in-
